This Week's News

Shabbos Parshas Emor, 5768 – Pirkei Avos chapter 2

This week's Torah portion, Emor discusses the laws of the Kohen, the Jewish Priest. Our sages teach, Emor v'amarta, Say and cause others to say. The elders are to instruct the youth.

The broader message of parshat Emor is to teach, instruct and guide. It refers to the importance of elders taking responsibility. It demands that fathers guide children; that grandparents inspire grandchildren; and teachers care for students.

This weekend, please take a moment of reflection and see what you could do to be an "Emor" maker and "amarta" causing others to have the same correct opinion, etc.

Shalom and good Shabbos,

Rabbi Faivish Dalfin
